In the following, we provide information about the collection of personal data in connection with our training courses.

The controller pursuant to Art. 4 (7) GDPR is baramundi software GmbH, Forschungsallee 3, 86159 Augsburg, Germany, telephone: +49 821 567 08 - 19, e-mail address: info@baramundi.com. Registration for the training

The information you enter when registering for the training (mandatory fields) is required to register you for the training, to coordinate the training in advance and to conduct the training as a whole. The additional data you enter voluntarily during registration will be used by us to address you more individually. When you register on our training platform, a user account is created for you to provide your personal training data and documents. Your user account will be anonymized at the latest after termination of the contracts relating to the baramundi Management Suite.

The legal basis for the data processing required for registration and execution is the fulfillment of the contract (Art. 6 para. 1 sentence 1 lit. b GDPR). There is no legal or contractual obligation to provide your data. Failure to provide it would mean that you would not be able to participate in our training courses.

We also use your data collected during registration for statistical evaluations for our quality and success control. The legal basis for the processing is our legitimate interest in monitoring the success and quality of our trainings in accordance with Art. 6 para. 1 lit. f GDPR.

If you are a sales partner of baramundi, we will also use the data collected during registration to verify your qualification for your partner status. The legal basis for the data processing required to verify the partner status is the fulfillment of the contract (Art. 6 para. 1 sentence 1 lit. b GDPR).

The data is deleted as soon as it is no longer required for the purpose for which it was collected and there are no statutory retention obligations. Statutory retention obligations exist, for example, from the German Fiscal Code (6 years) or the German Commercial Code (10 years).

We use a technical service provider with a data center located in Germany to register for the training, provide the training platform and conduct the training.

Feedback after the event

You can leave your personal feedback within the training tool. Your feedback is assigned to your user account. We use your feedback for the anonymized, longer-term evaluation of our training events. Art. 6 para. 1 lit. f GDPR serves as the legal basis for our legitimate interest in improving our training offering. If necessary, we will also contact you by telephone or email regarding your feedback.

We use technical service providers to implement our feedback processes. The data centers are located in Europe.

Use of your data for advertising purposes

We use the personal data of our participants for direct advertising for our own products, events and training courses. We also pass on your data to our sales partners for this purpose. We and our sales partners use your telephone number and your other contact details to contact you about our products, events and services. The legal basis for our legitimate interest in direct advertising by us and our sales partners is Art. 6 para. 1 lit. f GDPR.

Of course, you can object to the processing of your personal data for advertising purposes at any time. You can send your objection to advertising at any time free of charge to academy\(at\)baramundi.combaramundi.com)
